PRESIDING OFFICER'S
RULING NO. C2001-1/22

UNITED STATES OF AMERICA
POSTAL RATE COMMISSION
WASHINGTON, D.C. 20268-0001

Complaint on Sunday and Holiday Collections

Docket No. C2001-1

PRESIDING OFFICER'S RULING
ADMITTING WRITTEN CROSS-EXAMINATION INTO THE RECORD
AND CLOSING THE RECORD

(Issued July 1, 2002)

Presiding Officer's Ruling No. C2001-1/19 (affirmed by Presiding Officer's Ruling No. C2001-1/20) established a date of June 21, 2002 for Carlson to file a motion to enter his written cross-examination into the record without having to personally appear before the Commission. On June 27, 2002, Carlson filed both a motion for late acceptance and a motion to enter his written cross-examination into the record by affidavit.¹ The motion to enter written cross-examination into the record by affidavit was filed late due to Carlson's travel outside of the country. The motion for late acceptance and the motion to enter written cross-examination into the record by affidavit are granted. Thus, the designated written cross-examination, consisting of the response to interrogatory DPB/DFC-1, shall be included in the record of this proceeding.²

At this time, all testimony and written cross-examination identified by the participants to be included in the record has been received and entered into the record by the Commission. Anticipating no further record evidence, the record of this proceeding is now closed.

¹ Douglas F. Carlson Motion for Late Acceptance of Motion to Enter Written Cross-Examination into the Record by Affidavit, June 27, 2002. Douglas F. Carlson Motion to Enter Written Cross-Examination into the Record by Affidavit, June 27, 2002.

² Office of the Consumer Advocate Designation of Interrogatory Response, June 11, 2002.

RULING

1. The Douglas F. Carlson Motion for Late Acceptance of Motion to Enter Written Cross-Examination into the Record by Affidavit, June 27, 2002, is granted.
2. The Douglas F. Carlson Motion to Enter Written Cross-Examination into the Record by Affidavit, June 27, 2002, is granted. The designated written cross-examination, consisting of the response to interrogatory DPB/DFC-1, shall be included in the record of this proceeding.
3. The record of this proceeding is now closed.
